For Immediate Release: Marine Program Available to Farmers Agents

You are probably aware by now that Farmers has recently made some changes to their yacht program. It is my understanding that there are certain boat and yacht risks that Farmer's no longer has a program for, such as larger and higher value vessels that many of your clients own. It's tough to walk away from good business in trying times like these just because Farmers does not have a product for you. Therefore, I would like the opportunity to introduce you to the marine products we offer.

We at Maritime General Agency (MGA) are experts in the field of recreational marine insurance. We offer a broad selection of highly competitive marine products, including Boats, Yachts, Mega Yachts, Charter, Tour and Excursion Vessels, Marinas, Boat Dealers, Repair Facilities, Boat Builders and Yacht Clubs.

Our service is second to none. MGA's Staff are some of the most highly respected and experienced in the Recreational Marine Insurance Field. Our underwriters are attentive and quick to turn around quotes. Additionally, MGA offers instant online quoting capabilities for select boats and yachts as well as the ability to download pre-filled applications from our website to send direct to your assured. Through technology and personal service, we make it easy for you to write business!

Working with Maritime General not only allows you to continue to service your customers, it also provides the opportunity to expand your customer base. For additional information regarding Maritime General Agency, the products we write, and how to access us for a quote, please contact:
